

Sears June 9th 1884

letter on Mon. or Tuesday tell Marg. J. to send me a piece to what kind of a sweetheart has she got when she can't take time to write if I was be sure to write.

There is nothing here to tell about. Sears, if good night

Your affectionate sister Sarah Dale

tell her when you will write home I have given to send for Annys directions should like to write to her.

Dear sister I sit down to write you a few lines I am tired waiting to hear from you as I thought I should write is Margaret J. and G. nearly well and have good good health I don't care very much about the weather for its nothing but rain here the children are all well baby is growing fast she is a big girl now and the best of the lot Sandy is at school and is learning well he is there about two months he can spell three letters but just is hold as ever he can say the Lords prayer
